

School's Out Fun Day! 2021

Are you ready for a day packed full of silliness and fun...of course you are!

Start your summer with this online day of fun!

10AM: Chris White

Get your pencils out and join writer and illustrator Chris White for a silly, snappy Summer Reading session!

11AM: Storytime with Stacey

Let us entertain you with a story called Walters wonderful web, all about a determined little spider trying to make a perfect web.

12PM: Nicky Rafferty

Ever wondered how a rabbit got long ears and a bobtail.. Find out by listening in!

Then have a go at making an origami rabbit yourself.

1 PM: Councillor Barnard

Launches the Online Library summer activities programme and reads you a story about Anna and Otis. A funny story about friendship, kindness and overcoming fears.

2PM: Gemma Denham

Learn how to draw lots of different animals and go on a hunt for mini beasts with local author Gemma.

3PM: Robin Simpson

Explore the world of shadow puppets as storyteller Robin retells the classic tale of Little Red Riding Hood.

Friday 30 July 10AM - 3.30PM

A Facebook Event: @NottinghamLibraries

Warning: This day may contain an awful lot of silliness!
